

executive chef: NAL LIYANAGE

“What makes Canada great for food is that there is a demand for every type of cuisine, there is always a challenge out there which keeps me driven”

Nal is a chef with a wealth of experience creating mouth watering cuisine. Through the family catering business, he was introduced to the life of culinary arts at a very young age. His passion for food in a diverse city like Toronto keeps him motivated to please a variety of taste pallets.

He draws inspiration from different cuisines to create a fusion flare and holds vast experience catering large events to small private occasions.

Some of his highlights include:

- Executive Chef at Pickering Event Centre
- Over a decade of culinary expertise
- Graduate of Humber College Culinary Arts Program (Toronto, Canada)
- Culinary expert for The Sony Centre (Now Meridian Hall) (Toronto, Canada)
- Prepared food for Michelle Obama's Speaking Tour (Toronto, Canada)
- Prepped food for guests at the Canadian Screen Guild Awards
- Certified Food Truck operator
